FEBRUARY 2020

VOLUME 16, NUMBER 2

NEW VISITOR CENTER

At least 100 people were at the official opening on February 1 when Everglades City Mayor Howie Grimm cut the ribbon. We were honored to welcome Representative Mario Diaz-Balart and Everglades National Park Superintendent Pedro Ramos among the dignitaries who attended.

The huge sign above the information racks was made by Tim Brock and Steve Huff. We also had a telephone installed so that we do not rely on volunteers' cell phones. The number is (239) 232-0473.

The center is open from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. every day. If you can spare a few hours, stop in to pick a time on the calendar or leave us a message on the phone.

Sunshine Collection

Some of the watercolors of local buildings by artist Donald Sunshine are on display in the Visitor Center. He is a retired professor of architecture from Virginia Tech but has wintered in Florida for many years with his wife Joanna, also an talented artist.

ESHP acquired Donald's paintings in April 2019 and we will finally have a reception for him on Saturday, February 22, at 1:00 p.m. after Art-in-the-Glades. Everyone is invited to come along to the Visitor Center to admire his work and talk with him.

SAVING THE OLD BANK BUILDING

We are pleased to report that the owner of this historic building has been working with ESHP to stop it from crumbling away through lack of maintenance. We have already had the roof inspected and requested quotes for termite control.

You can hear an update on Friday, February 21, after we have a brief Annual Members' Meeting at 5:30 p.m. in the Island Café. The event is open to the public and there is no charge except for what you order from the menu. Book Review

by Marya Repko

The Hamilton name is common in southern Florida and a descendent of one of the pioneer families has written a book titled Lostmans Heritage about their history.

Karen Yvonne Hamilton dug into court records as well as speaking to relatives. She includes many old photos, family charts, and a list of references.

Karen is a speaker during History & Heritage Week at the Museum on Thursday, February 20, at 10:00 a.m. If you can not come along, you can order the book online at her website www.yesterdaypress.com.

News from the Historical Library

We can scan old photos and small documents in our new office on the first floor of City Hall while you wait if you do not want to donate them.
